

We love our environment...

Beautiful countryside, fresh sea air, big blue skies, cliffs and fields - nature at her best.

The site covers 5 acres of level fields and is part of a family run, working farm.

We are working hard to provide and maintain an eco-friendly site.

Welcome to Presingoll Farm

close to the charming village of St. Agnes, yet surrounded by rolling countryside. The site covers 5 acres of level fields and is part of a family run, working farm.

Presingoll Farm is ideally situated to explore both the North and South Cornwall coasts, whether you are interested in walking the South West Coastal Path, cycling or horse riding along the many trails and paths or making use of the extensive watersports available within easy driving distance.

Rugged cliffs,
sheltered beaches
and a bounty of tin
mining heritage

St Agnes & surrounding areas

St. Agnes is a thriving village with plenty of shops, restaurants, pubs and a local museum. The lovely sandy beaches of Trevaunance Cove and Chapel Porth are 1.5 miles from Presingoll Farm and the renowned surfing beaches of Porthtowan and Newquay are just a short drive away.

St. Agnes offers a variety of coastal, inland and valley walks, highlighting a huge range of interests from bird watching and wildlife to geology, folklore and local history.

Horsriding can be arranged with local riding stables giving children the opportunity to experience riding for the first time or for those more experienced a trot or gallop in the countryside.

There is plenty of great biking available with easy access to many trails and cycle paths suitable for the family or keen mountain biker.

You are welcome to bring your dog with you to Presingoll Farm. A dog exercise field is available.
